Short Professional Bio

Dr. Thomas J. W. Gasser is a Swiss-certified dentist and a European- and Swiss-certified Specialist in Reconstructive Dentistry (EPA/SSRD)—a board-certified designation awarded after rigorous postgraduate training, independent examination, and ongoing re-certification. Educated at the Universities of Basel and Zürich, he earned a MAS in Oral Implantology and a doctorate (Dr. med. dent.) with clinical research on peri-implant soft tissues and prosthetic rehabilitation. Following residencies and teaching appointments at the University of Zürich, he assumed stewardship of one of Basel's oldest practices at the Mittlere Brücke, where his work centers on reconstructive and implant dentistry as well as general dentistry. He lectures for the SSRD and ITI and co-directs the ITI Study Club Basel City.
